A Way other than Our Own

Devotions for Lent

By Walter Brueggemann

Lent recalls times of wilderness and wandering, from newly freed Hebrew slaves in exile to Jesus' temptation in the desert. God has always called people out of their safe, walled cities into uncomfortable places, revealing paths they would never have chosen. These thought-provoking reflections invite us to consider the challenging, beautiful life that comes with walking the way of grace.

Messy Easter

By Jane Leadbetter

Sue Taylor, Messy Church Coordinator
Anglican Parish of Sherwood writes:
"What an amazing Messy Easter we had at St Matthew's. Decided to have a Messy Good Friday as an extra with 65 in attendance and then our normal 3rd Sunday Messy Church fell on Easter Day and 140 men, women and children packed the church… Two young women were heard to say that Easter had come alive for them through coming to Messy Easter." An excellent resource for all ages.
