

And It Was Very Good
Everyday Moments of Awe
By Ed Olfert

What might it mean, that we are all “created in the image of God?” For much of his life, Ed Olfert has been intrigued by what glimpses of God might look like. He discovered that looking for God requires a new way of looking, a way that leaves space for awe and mystery. Glimpses of the Holy surround us every day, every moment.

What Is the Bible?

How an Ancient Library of Poems, Letters, and Stories Can Transform the Way You Think and Feel About Everything

Rob Bell
New York Times Bestselling Author of Lazarus

What is the Bible?

How an Ancient Library of Poems, Letters and Stories Can Transform the Way You Think and Feel about Everything
By Rob Bell

Bell goes deep into the Bible to show how it is more revelatory, revolutionary and relevant than we ever imagined and argues for a new, fresh way of reading it. How do we make sense of this complex collection we call Holy Scripture?

This is an ideal exploration from a leading author.

The Mystic in You
Discovering a God-Filled World

By Bruce G. Epperley

Defining a mystic as people who see holiness in everyday life, Epperley shows us how to become spiritually deep as he introduces the practices of St Francis, the desert mothers and fathers, the Celtic mystics, St Benedict and a host of others. Each chapter describes a mystic's life, spiritual practice and worldview with personal exercises that are accessible and God-encountering.

A Gospel of Hope

By Walter Brueggemann

Beloved and respected by scholars, preachers, and laity alike, Walter Brueggemann offers penetrating insights on Scripture and prophetic diagnoses of our culture. Instead of maintaining what is safe and routine, A Gospel of Hope encourages readers to embrace the audacity required to live out one's faith. This must-have volume gathers Brueggemann's wisdom on topics ranging from anxiety and abundance to partisanship and the role of faith in public life.

Jesus vs. Caesar

For People Tired of Serving the Wrong God

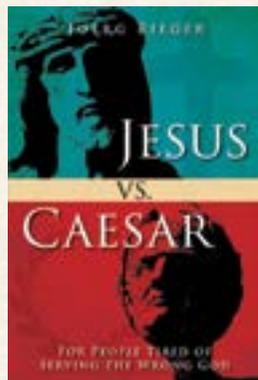

By Joerg Rieger

The great challenge to Christianity in the 21st Century is not between faith and science or with atheism or even the challenge of secularism – it is between true and false Christianity. This book serves as an indictment on the pieties of empire that grip our westernised views. It is prophetic. It is confronting. It is true and is a genuine wakeup call for every preacher and teacher of faith to be true to the Gospel of Christ.

The Gospel according to Star Wars, Second Edition

Faith, Hope and the Force

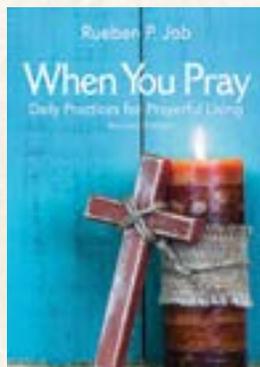

By John McDowell

In a new and updated version of this best-selling book, John McDowell explores the many spiritual themes that weave throughout the Star Wars films. From the Force to the dark side, the issues discussed in the films have a moral and spiritual complexity that, if paid attention to, can help us better understand our place in the world and our relation to others and to God. It is a great basis for preaching into a culture saturated with these images.

The day the Revolution Began

Reconsidering the Meaning of Jesus's Crucifixion

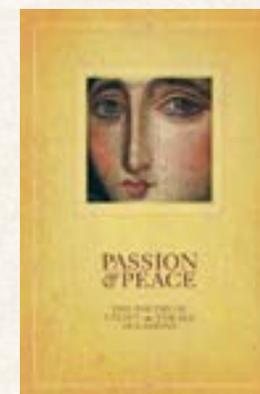

By NT Wright

Wright contemplates the central event at the heart of Christian faith and argues that the Protestant Reformation did not go far enough in transforming our understanding of its meaning, namely, it began a revolution calling for a new vocation of being a royal priesthood responsible for restoring and reconciling all of God's creation.
